

BOARD GOVERNANCE TRAINING FOR CEOs & SENIOR PUBLIC SERVANTS

Presented by David Brown, Executive Director, Brown Governance Inc., and Wynne Young, Executive-in-Residence, Johnson Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy

This two-day workshop aimed at CEOs, board members and other senior officials will familiarize participants with governance concepts and tools from the Professional Director Certification Program™, especially with regard to:

- expectations that the governance framework places on both board members and executives;
- relative roles and responsibilities of board members and management; and,
- how executives and public servants can better prepare information for, engage with, and respond to questions from board members.
