

U OF S CANADA 150 FORUM ON THE THE FUTURE OF HEALTH CARE IN CANADA

Monday, Sept. 18 4:30–6pm Convocation Hall

EMCEE

Roy Romanow

U of S Chancellor, former Premier of Saskatchewan and head of the Royal Commission on the Future of Health Care in Canada (2001-2002)

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Greg Marchildon

CEO to the Romanow Royal Commission, Ontario Research Chair in Health Policy and System Design at the University of Toronto, and JSGS Adjunct Professor

PANELIST

Daniel Béland

Canada Research Chair in Public Policy and Johnson Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy Professor

PANELIST

JoLee Sasakamoose

Associate Professor, Faculty of Education, University of Regina, and Research Affiliate, Indigenous Peoples' Health Research Centre

For more information, to register or to watch a live stream, visit canada150.usask.ca

Event presented in partnership with:

