How can new graduates pursue and secure jobs that will lead them to interesting and fulfilling careers? All JSGS students are invited to attend this career discussion featuring Jennifer Ditchburn, President and Chief Executive Officer, IRPP, and Charles Breton, Executive Director, Centre of Excellence on the Canadian Federation, as they talk about their professional journey through the public and private sector, including the challenges and successes they have faced, and provide advice for students who are starting on their career journeys. Students are encouraged to come prepared to ask questions!
