Government and the workings of the public sector impact us all. Those who understand how and why public decisions are made have an edge—not only in the public service but also in the private and non-profit sectors. Being able to visualize the complex network of public and private interests that impacts society is what will set you apart in the workforce.

Improve your employment chances. Join us to learn about our graduate programs in public administration, public policy and more.

DID YOU KNOW?: The school's 8-month paid executive internship program pairs you with senior-level executives in the federal, provincial or municipal government, or with a non-governmental organization. With an 87% transition rate to employment, the internship program might be what you need to jumpstart your career!
